HOPE FOR LIFE

BIBLICAL COUNSELING

for everything that was written In the past was written to teach us so that through endurance
and the encouragement of the Scriptures
we might have hope.

[romans 15:4]

Book Review

LOVE & RESPECT
by Emerson Eggerichs

After having various friends and several people who were being counseled ask us what we thought of this popular book, we decided to do a formal review.

It is safe to say that we were quite surprised by what we found.

Currently, we have an eight page "synopsis" of the review as well as a much more specific and in-depth "extended version" at 130 pages.

If you're interested in hearing about what we discovered, let us know and we'll give you more details.

Merry Christmas!

We pray that you are growing in the grace and knowledge of Jesus this Christmas season, and that you are clearly seeing His goodness and faithfulness every day.

It has been a long time since our last newsletter, as we were hoping to have our new ministry website ready to announce.

Our friends, Marcus Davis and Nick Crawford have generously blessed us with their company's web design services, and should have the new site launched by the end of the year. We're excited about this opportunity to provide Biblical resources to a wider audience.

We're also looking forward to the possibility of offering another Equipped For Life class in January. If you or someone you know is interested in taking this class, let us know.

As always, we are so thankful for the blessing of your prayerful support. We would especially appreciate your prayers regarding the finances for the counseling ministry—that God will continue providing all that is necessary to present the hope of His Word to every person who needs it.

A Changed Life

How God has transformed one woman's life. Here is her story in her own words:

My life revolved around drugs, sex, and money. I lived a very fast life and it was all about me. I hated what I had become. Finally, I cried out to Jesus with all my heart and surrendered my whole being to Him. At last I was free.

Today, I live my life in obedience to Christ and follow Him fully.

I thank God for the Biblical counseling I have received through Hope For Life. Because of their Biblical teaching and knowledge of the Word of God, I have been able to build a solid foundation for my life.

My desires and beliefs have changed, and I no longer put my hope in people as I once did. Hope For Life has taught me to put my hope in God alone.

Praise Jesus.
